

Vented Intubating Introducer Hansraj Marshall UK

Single Use

The intubating introducer consists of a catheter and a single 15mm connector. The catheter has a through lumen design with two distal sideports to allow adequate airflow. The catheter has centimetre markings, which start at 10cm from the distal end, to accurately judge introducer depth within the trachea. The blunt catheter tip is atraumatic.

Key Features

Vented Intubating Introducer

- o Atraumatic smooth, rounded coudé tip
- o Memory retention allows shaping to individual preferences and needs
- o Radiopaque to confirm proper placement
- o Disposable
- o Minimise risk of contamination
- o Single-use design eliminates usage tracking
- o Cost effective
- o Eliminates cost of cleaning and reprocessing
- o Sideports allow oxygen delivery
- o Packaged in convenient and economic boxes of 10
- o Sideports allow oxygen delivery
- o Each one contains a 15mm connector

Vented Intubating Introducer
Product	Size	Code	Quantity
Vented Bougie	14ch x 750mm	FSM1687	10 per box